In early April, we received the news that our daughter, Shermaine, has been awarded a summer scholarship to a university in Germany. A week later, we were told our special need son, Ernest, has been selected to represent CANADA in the Special Olympic World Games 2017 at Austria in cross country skiing. Praise the Lord!

What did we do to deserve such blessings and honor? One bible verse speaks to my heart: Proverb 3:5, Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding.

These blessings are not in our wildest dream or prayer. We can never understand what is God's master plan in our life. Romans 8:28: And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him.

We cannot be super parents. But we can strive to be super prayer parents interceding for our children at all time. That is the best thing we can do for our children. Amen.
